

INTERNATIONAL WORKERS' MEMORIAL DAY 2022

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO ATTEND THE IWMD BEING HELD ON THURSDAY THIS WEEK.

The itinerary for the day is as follows. We do hope you can make it along and join us.

Assembly at the Georges Dock Building (GDB) (vent shaft for the Queensway Tunnel) The Strand, Liverpool L3 1DD (on the Dock Road, bottom of James Street over the Strand towards the river).

Roger Phillips, former BBC Radio Merseyside Presenter will compère for the day.

11.30am

Roger Phillips will open the day's proceeding welcoming everyone and will briefly explain the purpose of the day.

12.00 noon

One minute silence to remember all those who have lost their lives due to work followed by foghorns sounding on the river. The GDB will be lit up in Purple, the colour of the purple ribbons that will be distributed and is the IWMD colour for the event.

12.01

Compère invites a family member of the late Tony Mulhearn to unveil the new IWMD plaque. Short speeches by family member and Jamie McGovern, H&S Officer for the CWU Trade Union explaining the very essence of the day and this year's theme.

12.10-12.15

Compère invites those wishing to lay a wreath to lined up under the plaques for a photo op while the Piper plays a lament. After the photo op wreaths are laid against the wall and compère invites all into meeting room at St. Nicholas Parish Church, Bottom of Chapel Street and opposite Mercure Atlantic Tower Hotel for buffet and speakers.

12.30 Speakers

Leslie Mahmood, on the NHS and its future. 15 minutes. A speaker on those who have lost their lives to Covid. 15 minutes. No Q&A is planned.

1.00pm

Compère closes event at approx.

IT IS IMPORTANT THAT WE HAVE NUMBERS OF ATTENDEES FOR THE BUFFET - PLEASE RSVP INFO@MAVSG.ORG IF YOU WISH TO ATTEND THE EVENT AFTER THE LAYING OF THE WREATHS.

